Potato competition 2018

The Dolphinholme Show is holding the Potato Competition again this year. Mrs Baines is selling potato bags at a cost of £2 per bag. The winner will be determined by weight at the Village Show on 8th September.

The Village Show Committee include the potato competition for children each year and we want as many children to get involved as possible in order to support the show.

If you haven't bought your potato bag yet, please return your order form by this Wednesday. If you have lost the order form, just send the money in a named envelope marked Potato Competition and hand to Mrs Baines.

The earlier you get the bag and start growing the potatoes, the more time you have to produce a winning crop.
